LATIN AMERICAN INSTITUTE: TOPICS AND PAPER WRITERS

1. Heraclio Bonilla
Constitutionalism in Latin American History and Today focus on sources of constitutional thought and reform in Latin America as well as upon an analysis of the reasons for and content of the current wave of constitution-making in the region.

2. Hugo Frühling
The Place of Positive Rights and Human Rights in Latin American Constitutions and Governments focus on analysis of why certain kinds of rights become constitutional matters and others are legislative questions in different societies.

3. Juan Rial
The Role of the Military and Constitutionalism focus on the relationship of the Latin American military to governments and other social groups, and on its place in Latin American society.

4. Fabio Konder Comparato
Constitutionalism and the Functions of the Modern State focus on relationship of bureacracy and federalism to policy-making and planning in contemporary contitutional thought--the practicalities of constitution-making counterposed to larger, more transcendant goals.

5. Carlos Nino
The Process of Constitutional Reform in Latin America focus on how Latin American constitutions have been reformed in the past and how they may be most effectively reformed in the future.

6. Miriam Kornblit
Diversity, Social Structures, and Constitutionalism focus on the relationship of social structure and non-governmental insitutions to constitutionalism. Among the forces to be discussed: ethnic groups, political parties, the church.

7. Juan Linz
Democracy, Constitutionalism, and Political Regimes in Latin America focus on comparative analysis of presidential and parliamentary regimes, and their many varients, as well as upon structures for representation and direct democracy in Latin American constitutions.

8. Luis Eduardo González
